Description

Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Serbia is the largest independent nation-wide business association in Serbia with over 150 years of tradition. It is established by Law (OJ 65/2001, 36/2009, 99/2011) with a view of articulating and supporting common interests of the Serbian business community. Members of the CCIS are enterprises (over 100 000), sole traders and all other forms of business. The membership is divided into 15 sector-based associations and further on in around 200 subsector-based groups. Additionally, the members are also active through number of boards (i.e. environment, SME, technological innovations). The main Chamber activities involve business interest representations vis-à-vis public authorities, articulation of common interests in diverse business community, providing expert support to companies, nurturing good business customs and practices and offering alternative dispute settlement mechanisms, rendering powers conferred by the State, etc.
